Located in the heart of the Costa Brava, between the sea and the mountains, the municipality of Calonge fully benefits from the natural wealth and diversity of the Bajo Ampurdán. Its location, between the Gavarres massif and the wide bay of Palamós and Sant Antoni, offers a notable variety of landscapes. The municipality is distinguished as a Family Tourism Destination, awarded by the Catalan Tourism Agency. Here, both families and residents can enjoy an excellent range of leisure and dining options. Girona airport is 35 minutes away and Barcelona is just 1 hour away.

This charming town will not only captivate you with its landscapes, but also with its vibrant culture and traditions.

These are some of the renowned vineyards in the area:

Pages Mas Molla wine: Feel the tradition in every sip. A family that has been in the business for generations, with the new generation at the helm, empowered by specific studies.

Calonge is also a town of reading and books:

Known as the first Catalan "booktown", Calonge is a paradise for reading lovers. Its streets are full of bookstores and literary events that invite you to immerse yourself in the world of books.

Let's not forget its historical and cultural heritage:

Calonge Castle, the oldest part of which dates back to the 12th century, today hosts exhibitions and concerts, becoming the cultural epicenter of the town.

Historic Churches: Visit the Church of Sant Martí, the Orthodox Church of San Jorge Victorioso and the Church of Sant Antoni de Calonge, and discover the spiritual and architectural wealth of the region.

And last but, for many, the most important, the paradisiacal beaches of the municipality, which are among the best on the Catalan coast:

Cala Cristus: Relax in this picturesque cove with crystal clear waters.

Cala de les Roques Planes: Explore its unique rock formations.

Cala de la Bella Dona: An idyllic corner to disconnect and enjoy the sea.

In addition, Calonge is a town that has an international link with a town in Andorra, Sant Julià de Lòria, through the "germanament" (twinning) program and highlights the union and collaboration between these two charming destinations, one on the beach, another in the mountains.
